Art Unit: 3728

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claim 16 is finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Suzuki et al. ('259) in view of either one of Istwan (2,556,844) and Brooks (3,499,595). Suzuki discloses a portable organizer comprising a panel (22-25, at least one flap (26 or 27) connected to the panel (see Figure 2), each flap including at least one folding section (defined by lines L3-L5) and multiple perforation lines (38 and 39). Istwan and Brooks each disclose perforations (11; defining 18 and 20; respectively) that are easily broken to provide a change in disposition of the portion defined by the perforations. To modify the folding sections of Suzuki et al. employing perforations as opposed to cuts would have been obvious in order to maintain the folding section in position with the remaining portions prior to being employed for the intended use, as disclosed by either one of Istwan and Brooks.

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 16 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. To merely modify Suzuki ('259) employing perforations as opposed to cut lines at 38 and 39 would have been within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Art Unit: 3728

4. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

5. Claims 1-15 are allowed.

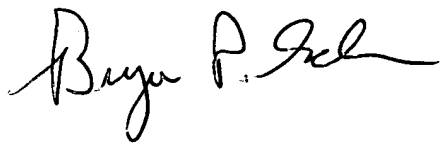

6. Claim 17 would be allowable if rewritten to include all of the limitations of the base claim.
